PREAMBLE AND CONSTITUTION

OF THE

NEWTOWN SQUARE HORSE COMPANY, OF NEWTOWN, DELAWARE COUNTY, PA.

WHEREAS, it appears that for want of some general system of action and mutual aid amongst the inhabitants of this district, much loss has been sustained and many thieves and other villains have escaped: Therefore, be it Resolved that we this day form ourselves into a Company for the protection of property known by the name style and Title of Newtown Square Horse Company, of Newtown Township, Delaware County, and State of Pennsylvania, for the detection of Horse Thieves, and the recovery of stolen property, and that we will support each other upon the terms and conditions hereinafter provided, and such as may from time to time appear conducive to the general interest.

CONSTITUTION.

SECTION 1st.—The officers of the Company shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and six Directors, to be chosen at the annual meetings of the Company, which annual meetings shall be held on the 2nd day in each and every year, at Newtown Square, and then and there between the hours of one and ten o'clock P.M., elect by ballot the officers of the Company: The stated meetings of the Company shall be held at Newtown Square, on the 2nd, 2nd day of April, July and October.

Sec. 2nd. All persons who propose now, or may hereafter become members of the Company shall enter their names, in a Book kept by the Secretary, in which the proceedings of the Company and this Constitution shall be recorded.

Sec. 3rd. Candidates for membership shall be nominated by one of the members at any meeting of the Company, who shall inform the Company of the character and circumstances of the applicant if required, a vote shall then be taken and the consent of a majority of the members present shall entitle the applicant to the right of membership.

Sec. 4th. It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all the meetings of the Company, to preserve order, to enforce the rules and regulations, and to sign all drafts for money on the Treasurer, and perform such other duties as may from time to time devolve upon him.

Sec. 5th. It shall be the duty of the Vice President to act in the absence of the President, and to perform all duties devolved upon the President.

Sec. 6th. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep accurate and correct minutes of the transaction of the Company, to keep accurately the accounts between the Company and its members, without prejudice or partiality, to receive all monies due the Company and pay the same to the Treasurer; to sign all orders on the Treasurer, and to assist the Directors as a member of the board.

Sec. 7th. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive all monies due the company from the Secretary, and pay all drafts on him for money signed by the President and Secretary, and to keep a regular account of his receipts and disbursements, and will be required to give bonds for the faithful performance of his duty.

Sec. 8th. It shall be the duty of the Directors to have the care and direction of all the affairs and effects of the Company, and shall cause a fair statement of all accounts of the company to be laid before the members at their stated meetings.

Sec. 9th. The Secretary and Treasurer, shall in connection with former prescribed duties render an accurate account to the Directors of all monies and effects which may have come into their hands belonging to the Company, at every stated meeting, and shall at the option of the Directors or at the end of their term of office, deliver to their successors in office all monies, books of accounts and other effects belonging to the company.

Sec. 10th. Each and every member wishing to enter his horse or horses under the protection of the Company, shall apply to any two of the Directors, and submit his horse or horses to their inspection, and upon their approval of the valuation of said horse or horses, they shall forthwith furnish the applicant with a certificate, which in connection with the Colour, age, height and marks both natural and casual, shall be delivered to the Secretary, who shall keep an accurate record thereof, subject at any time to the inspection of the members.

Sec. 11th. No horse shall be insured against any loss except that of being stolen. The person so insured will be required to pay one half of one per cent, on said valuation, (as per Art. 10th) and one half of one per cent at all the annual meetings of the Company; And if he parts with said horse or horses and obtains another, or other's instead, he will be required to enter them as the previous ones were entered, subject to a new valuation and assessment. And if said horse or horses are of greater value than the ones previously insured, then he will be required to pay the additional assessment at the time of entering, and if of less value no deduction will be made. And if at any time there be not sufficient funds in the hands of the Treasurer, to pay all losses sustained, there shall be a requisition made on the members, for their proportionate share of said deficiency.

Sec. 12th. In the event a horse is stolen, and not recovered in 30 days, the owner shall receive the amount of the registered valuation in lieu of said horse, and if at any time he is recovered, it shall be optional with the owner either to receive back said horse or allow him to be sold for the benefit of the Company.

Sec. 13th. As soon after the organization of this Company as practicable, the Directors will be required to obtain a sufficient number of blank Hand Bills, which shall be in the following words, viz:—

Was Stolen from the Subscriber.	Dollars Reward
Residing in	Township	County	Parish.
hands high,	Years old

Any person (other than a member of this company) who will give information of said that the owner may recover shall receive the above Reward and all reasonable charges paid if brought home.

Reward of Dollars will be paid by the Newtown Square Horse Company of Del. Co., for detecting Horse Thieves, and the recovery of stolen horses, to any person who will detect the Thief, so that he may be brought to conviction by the President.

The foregoing blanks shall be signed by the President, and each member to be furnished with Copies to fill up as soon as he ascertains he has a horse stolen, in as correct a manner as possible, to correspond with the description given in the Secretary's book.

Sec. 14th. All the Rewards in Sec. 13th to be paid out of the funds of the Company, and amount to be fixed on by the Directors or any two of them, and all other measures taken for the recovery of stolen horses, as they may see proper.

Sec. 15th. Members are enjoined strictly, to observe the conduct of every stranger coming into their neighborhood without any known business, to diligently watch the movements of all suspected persons, to acquire a habit of noticing all travellers and horses that come in their ways and generally to use all possible means, to effect the object of the Company.

Sec. 16th. Each and every officer of the Company neglecting or refusing to perform the duties required of him, by this Constitution, shall pay a fine of $5 for the use of the Company.

Sec. 17th. If any shall so misbehave himself, as to incur the displeasure of the Company, a majority of the members present at any meeting shall have the power to expel said offender.

Sec. 18th. A fine of 25 cents shall be imposed on all the members for non-attendance at all the regular or stated meetings of the Company unless a sufficient reason can be assigned.

Sec. 19th. No substitute shall be employed by members of the Company in the discharge of their duties.

Sec. 20th. All persons becoming members are hereby required, to waive all advantages arising from the so called $300 Law or all Laws of like nature.

Sec. 21st. This Company shall not be broken up, or disbanded so long as five members are willing to continue it.

Sec. 22nd. Five members shall constitute a quorum, for the transaction of business.

Sec. 23rd. Alterations and amendments may be made from time to time, by giving notice at a previous meeting.
